Pilgrimage in a Secular Age

Eduardo Chemin
Pilgrimage in a Secular Age

Religious & Consumer Landscapes of Late–Modernity

Submitted by Jose Eduardo de Andrade Chemin Filho to the University of Exeter as a thesis for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Sociology in November 2011.

This thesis is available for Library use on the understanding that it is copyright material and that no quotation from the thesis may be published without proper acknowledgement.

I certify that all material in this thesis which is not my own work has been identified and that no material has previously been submitted and approved for the award of a degree by this or any other University.

Signature: .................................................................

University of Exeter • United Kingdom
In loving memory of Gabriel Pelizzari Chemin (1990 – 2008)
whose journey ended so soon
Contents

Acknowledgements .................................................................................................................. iii
Preface ....................................................................................................................................... v
List of Illustrations .................................................................................................................. ix
List of Charts ............................................................................................................................ xi
Abstract ....................................................................................................................................... xii

Introduction: The Return of the Pilgrim

Pathways of Europe: The Camino de Santiago as a Case Study • Pilgrimage Past & Present: Defining the Problem & Problems of Definition • Religious & Consumer Landscapes: Secularization, Religion & Consumerism at Pilgrimage Sites • Heritage and the Politics of Place; Pilgrimage & Social Theory: Moving Beyond Dichotomies • The Stages of the Journeys

Part I Pilgrimage in 21st Century Europe: History, Facts & Theory

Chapter 1 The Camino de Santiago: Re–inventing Tradition

The Making of the Pilgrimage to Compostela • The Medieval Path to God: Motivations for Pilgrimage • The Modern Pilgrimage: Re–inventing Traditions

Chapter 2 Religious Tourism in Contemporary Europe

The South • Western Europe • Eastern Europe • The North • Agencies & Entrepreneurs

Chapter 3 Social Theory & the Return of the Pilgrim

The Sacred & the Profane: Central Debates in the Field of Pilgrimage Studies • Pilgrimage, Religion & Consumer Culture in Late Modernity: Moving Beyond Dichotomies • Movement & Place: A Dialectical Approach to the Study of Religion

Part II Tales from the Field: Pilgrim Stories on the Road to Compostela

Chapter 4 A Study of British Travellers on the Road to Compostela

A Personal Introduction to the Study of Pilgrimage • Methodology: Grounded Theory & Situational Analysis • Research Design: A Project in Three Stages • Research Validity & Interpretation
Chapter 5 Religion & Spirituality

A Personal Introduction to the Study of Pilgrimage • Methodology: Grounded Theory & Situational Analysis • Research Design: A Project in Three Stages • Research Validity & Interpretation

Chapter 6 Mind, Body & Soul: The Social Psychology of Healing

A Vicarious Act: Remembrance & Healing • Closure & Fulfilment of Vows • Uncluttering • Moving Bodies, Healing Souls: The Way Within & the Way Without

Chapter 7 Pilgrimage as Metaphor

The Finiteness of it All: Time & Meaning • The Pilgrim Ethos & the Spirit of the Way • Seeking 'Time Out': Escape & Refuge • We Never Walk Alone: Encounters & 'Disencounters' on the Road to Santiago

Chapter 8 Community, Performance & Sensation Seeking

Something Greater than Yourself • Characters on a Journey • A Moving Community • Finding Limits

Part III Pilgrimage in a Secular Age: Religious & Consumer Landscapes of Late Modernity

Chapter 9 The Return of the Pilgrim & the Social Construction of Meaning

Producers of Meaning: From Local to Global • 'Glocalization': Media, Politics & Consumer Culture at Pilgrimage Sites

Chapter 10 Religious & Consumer Landscapes of Late-Modernity

'Religious Consumerism': Experiencing Religion through Consumer Culture • Something Greater than Ourselves: Chains of Memory

Conclusions: The Pilgrim Ethos & the Spirit of Modern Pilgrimage

The Pilgrim Ethos • Pilgrimage & the Liminal Nature of Late-Modernity • Place & Memory: Anchoring the Self • Movement as 'Heterotopia': Mirroring Society • The Road Walked & the Way Ahead

Appendix A: List of Participants According to Order of Interviews

Appendix B: Consent Form for Participants

Appendix C: Letter of Explanation to Participants

Glossary

References