

GLOSSARY AND NOTES TO ANNEXES

Notes:

1. The annexes comprise four spreadsheets. The abbreviations used in the various spreadsheet cells are peculiar to the annexes. Thus this glossary is applicable only to the annexes. For abbreviations etc used in the rest of the thesis, the main glossary should be consulted.
2. In accordance with the Exeter University ethical committee's rules and the requirements of the Second Sea Lord, information that could identify an individual has as far as is possible, been removed.
3. Where it is possible, i.e. if 'Excel' permits, ship's names are italicised.

* Used to indicate a bar to an award, i.e. the medal being awarded for the second or further time

+ Used to indicate passing an advanced course,

AS Passed Anti-submarine course

Bt Baronet

CB Commander of the Order of the Bath

CBE Commander of the Order of the British Empire

CM Court Martial

DD Discharged Dead (an entry in the ships books)

DSC Distinguished Service Cross

DSO Distinguished Service Order

G Passed Gunnery Specialist course

KBE Knight of the Order of the British Empire

KIA/KAS Killed in Action/Killed Active Service

MBE Member of the Order of the British Empire

MIA Missing in Action

MiD Mentioned in Despatches

N Passed Navigation specialist course

OBE Officer of the Order of the British Empire

PRT Passed Physical and Recreational Training course

Psc Passed Staff College

PVR Premature Voluntary Retirement

Quarterly Placed on quarterly report

S	Passed Signals specialist course
SM	Passed Submarine Specialist course
T	Passed Torpedo and Electrical course
TLDisp	Their Lordships Displeasure
TLSevDisp	Their Lordships Severe Displeasure
TBD	Passed examinations for command of a destroyer
UTI	Urinary Tract Infection (usually venereal)
VC	Victoria Cross