

SPOONERS PROTEAN VIEWS No. 4.
DESTRUCTION OF A SWISS VILLAGE BY AN AVALANCHE.
The Village is seen by Moonlight, the inhabitants, by the lights gleaming from their casements & reflected on the Lake are not yet retired to their beds. The Morian glair brings to view the destruction of the Mill - an Avalanche has buried in a split the village leaving but the Spire of the Church and the Tower of the Castle to mark its situation.
LONDON. W. SPOONER 377, STRAND.

BD070195

Protean View: Destruction of a Swiss Village by an Avalanche

Copyright 2009 University of Exeter, all rights reserved.

SPoonERS PROTEAN VIEWS No. 4.
DESTRUCTION OF A SWISS VILLAGE BY AN AVALANCHE.

The Village is seen by Moonlight, the inhabitants by the lights gleaming from the windows & reflected on the Lake are not yet retired to their beds. The Mountains appear to glow from the destruction of the Village, and the Forest of the Castle to mass its situation.

LONDON. W. SPOONER 377, STRAND.

BD070195_2

Protean View: Destruction of a Swiss Village by an Avalanche
Copyright 2009 University of Exeter, all rights reserved.